

The Lord is a warrior

Ex 14, 15, Phil 2, Rev 19

Death is close
Closing in
Now surrounded by our foes
We were born as slaves to them

Darkness falls
Hope departs
As their armies boast our end
But today they will not win

See the waters parting
See His enemies all running...

The Lord is a warrior

The Lord is a warrior

The Lord is His name

The Lord is His name

See the Lamb
On His cross
Once exalted now despised
It is finished and He dies

Silence falls
Days go past
My God did the darkness win
But this is not the end

Feel the shaking ground
See the stone is rolling back now...
