

MATT PAPA

BOOKING FAQ'S

1. How much does Matt typically charge?

Matt does not have a set honorarium amount. He leaves that up to the Lord and those planning the event. Sometimes Matt is not able to bring his band along with him due to finances, but He tries to serve with his band at most every event. If you would like to know what they typically receive, feel free to ask.

2. How does Matt choose which events to be a part of?

The vision of the event is the most important thing to Matt. He is excited to partner with people who love the gospel and love the Church. And because Matt wants to be strategic with his time and make the largest kingdom-impact possible, He typically only accepts invitation for events with an attendance OVER 500 people.

3. How do Matt (and the band) travel to their events?

Matt and his band live in Raleigh, NC. Typically, if an event or concert is within a 6 hour driving radius of Raleigh, they will drive their van. If an event or concert is further away than a 6 hour drive, they will need to fly.

4. Where can I find some promo photos?
